

Nordic Sensor Failure Rate Issue Tree

To be Mutually Exclusive....

- ✓ ..is to ensure that for each sub-issue listed, they are independent of one another and have no overlap.

To be Collectively Exhaustive..

- ✓ ..is to ensure that for each issue listed, they help answer the question of fully describe the idea in an 'exhaustive' manner where potential avenues are fleshed out and explored if feasible

Together, the 'Issues' answer the question or fully describe the idea